Reflection

“If anyone loves me he will keep my word”

This is a powerful statement from Jesus. It is easy to say we love the Lord but these words remind us of the message St. Francis gave to his first friars when he told them that they ‘must preach the Gospel at all times. When necessary use words.’ We speak our faith not with our lips but with our lives. If we are truly Christian it is never enough to say we love Christ using our tongue, our whole life must speak of God to our world, our every action must give testimony. There can be no place for condemnation, for criticism or for judgement. These things make a lie of the faith we profess. Let us ask God to give us the grace we need to truly believe, that we may truly love and so give God a worthy home in our hearts.

clergy but truly recognised as 'co-responsible' for the Church's being and action.' that emerged more recently. Part of the remit of the Parish Pastoral Council will be to help support and to provide linkage between the various ministry groups. At their best, Parish Pastoral Councils foster and give expression to a parish sense of community and 'communio' (a Latin word that expresses togetherness and connectedness). As Pope Benedict XVI said at Castel Gandolfo last August, 'Feel the commitment to work for the Church's mission to be your own, through prayer, through study, through active participation in ecclesial life, through an attentive and positive gaze at the world, in the continual search for the signs of the times.' St Patrick came to share the Good News to the people of Ireland. We are doing what he did in a way.
