Reflection: This Sunday at 12.30pm Mass ACCORD celebrates forty years of working in Enniskillen, helping couples prepare for marriage and offering counselling to those who feel they need it. Accord works as part of the mission of the Church in helping us appreciate the value of relationships. By virtue of our Baptism we are all called by God to make real the gift of love in our world. The commandment Christ gave us before he returned to His father was that we should love one another as the Father has loved us. In her teaching on marriage the Church asserts that the exclusive love between two people is intended by God to be for us a visible sign of His loving presence among us. The sincere exchange and living out of marriage vows are, therefore, meant to reveal to us the love of God being lived out in our daily reality. Those who commit themselves to one another in sincere love remind all of us of the call to love we have each received from God. They remind us too of the truth that God holds all of us in love and desires only our good. They encourage us to have greater confidence in our own ability to love. They are a living witness to us of the strength of the human spirit to be, by God's grace, a source of life to others. As we celebrate with ACCORD may we all learn to trust more fully in the love of God within us, to welcome with and to work with it that, by God's grace we may become a more loving people and so make God's presence more readily visible to those around us. Congratulations and 'Thank You' to all those who work in and with ACCORD and who support their work as this anniversary is marked.

Progress of our New Aumbry: Cathedrals and main churches have an 'Aumbry', a special chamber to store the Holy Oils that are used for Baptism, for Confirmation and for Anointing of the Sick. The design of the new Aumbry for St Michael's is inspired by the Holy Water fonts that are in the entrance lobbies to either side of the main entrance of St Michael's Church. It has been done by the Architect, Ciaran Mullarkey, of Mullarkey Pedersen Architects, Derry City. The work has been undertaken by Tracey Brothers. The stone work has been supplied by the Feely Stone Company and electrical work by Paul Keenan. It is hoped that the Aumbry will be commissioned and blessed at a Saturday morning Mass, most likely in September. At present, the door for the Aumbry (which is planned to be made from glass with a brass surround) has to be manufactured
