Reflection

Life in many ways, is about searching for God but many of us go looking for him in the far off- hills and obscure places. We pleasantly forget the obvious, that God moves in mysterious ways, and is most likely to be present in our nearest and dearest, and in our neighbours. God is present in the ordinary bits and pieces of life and shows up more often than we think. He is not apart from the world, nor is he confined or controlled by religious ritual and language. We meet him in every person, place and moment that comes our way. The trouble with us is that, because we stand so close to one another, we only see the faults and take for granted the great gifts of goodness which we all possess. We become a community of knockers and begrudgers once we allow ourselves to be blinded by jealousy and family prejudice. If we can put a bad word or an interpretation on a neighbour's act of kindness we won't miss the opportunity to comment. Let us not take for granted the presence of God among us as evidence in the goodness of family, friends and neighbours.
