Reflection: The Graveyard of Hopes

We had hoped

That our loved ones would not be taken from us;

That things would get easier;

That every hurt would be balanced by joy;

That God would become clearer somehow;

That peace would be secured among people;

That comedy would triumph;

That justice would be established;

That our good health would endure;

That people would become kinder;

That racism would be unknown; that every religion would be esteemed;

That tragedy would happen only on stage;

That wrinkles would appear only in our clothing; That we could lay down our burdens;

That we could forsake our sins; that we would not be forgotten;

That So it goes on and on,

Making for the largest cemetery in the world.

Deaths: We pray for the recently deceased: Aidan Whitley, Inisfold;

Lilly Tapster, Hillview Road. Anna O'Rourke, Henry Street.

We pray also for the parents and family of baby Oisín James Keown, Galliagh Shore and ask the Lord to comfort them in their sad loss.

May they rest in peace.

Al-anon Does someone in your family drink too much? Is it making you lonely and unhappy – causing money problems- creating stress? It might be your partner, child or your mother or father. If you would like to share your worries with people who understand because they have had them too – phone Al-anon 02890 682368 for nearest group contact.

Sacred Heart Messenger: Sincere thanks to all parishioners for the very warm welcome accorded to Elizabeth Foley and Gaye Adams on 30th June/1st July. They were delighted with our reaction to the Sacred Heart Messenger and thankful that so many took up the half-price offer of a year's subscription by post for £9.90. For those who missed that opportunity, they left some spare copies of the June issue with order forms on each of the bookstands. May the Sacred Heart watch over all the families in our parish.

Progress of our New Aumbry: Cathedrals and main churches have an 'Aumbry', a special chamber to store the Holy Oils that are used for Baptism, for Confirmation and for Anointing of the Sick. The design of the new Aumbry for St Michael's is inspired by the Holy Water fonts that are in the entrance lobbies to either side of the main entrance of St Michael's Church. It has been done by the Architect, Ciarán Mullarkey, of Mullarkey, Pedersen Architects, Derry City. The work has been undertaken by Tracey Brothers, The stone work has been supplied by the Feely Stone Company and electrical work by Paul Keenan. It is hoped that the Aumbry will be commissioned and blessed at a Saturday morning Mass, most likely in August.

Refurbishment of Lighting in the Main Body of St Michael's Church: Since the cease of manufacture of the light bulbs used in the light fittings down the main aisle of the church, these lights are being retrofitted with new light fixtures that will use LED bulbs.
