Reflection

by Jane Mellett for World Day of Migrants and Refugees:

During the past year we have watched as hundreds of thousands of people flee their homes in Syria and other parts of the world. The image of three year old Aylan Kurdi, washed up on a beach, shocked us for a while. Not since World War II have so many been forced from their homes. How can we respond? We must always be ready to welcome the refugee and migrant. Our faith is one of hospitality, compassion and mercy. Pope Francis says: 'Mercy nourishes and strengthens solidarity towards others as a necessary response to God's gracious love... Each of us is responsible for his/her neighbour: we are our brothers and our sisters keepers, wherever they live. ...Hospitality grows from giving and receiving'

Deaths: We pray for the recently deceased: Leo McAtamney, Maynooth, Co Kildare; Sadie Seaney, Burfitt's Hill, Irvinestown; Raymond Clarke England formerly Devenish Crescent; Baby Matthew Paul Morris, Meadow Farm. May they rest in peace.

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY 18TH – 25TH JANUARY

The 2016 theme material was prepared for worldwide use by the Christians of Latvia, and adapted by the Britain and Ireland writers group, based around the verses 1 Peter 2:9-10. Peter's first letter is an encouragement to the newly baptised to live holy lives and to answer the calling shared by all the baptised to proclaim the mighty acts of the Lord. Today, Latvia is a crossroads where Roman Catholic, Protestant and Orthodox regions meet. Because of this unique location, it is home to Christians of many different traditions, but no single one of them is dominant. Gathered together by the Archbishop of Riga, members of a variety of church communities and projects in Latvia were asked to reflect on the chosen theme and the experience of their work. The main service is inspired by the verses from Peter's letter and Jesus' metaphors of salt and light which are important cultural themes for Latvia. Each of the days has been prepared by one of the diverse Church communities. The 8 days are linked principally by the experience of being a Christian in Latvia. This year's service will be held in Enniskillen Presbyterian Church at 7.30pm on Thursday 21st January. All are welcome to attend.
