Reflection ~ How can I tell of such love to me?

You made me in your image and hold me in the palm of your hand, your cords of love, strong and fragile as silk bind me and hold me.

Rich cords, to family and friends, music and laughter echoing in memories, light dancing on the water, hills rejoicing.

Cords that found me hiding behind carefully built walls and led me out, love that heard my heart break and despair and rescued me,
love that overcame my fears and doubts and released me.

The questions and burdens I carry you take, to leave my hands free-to hold yours, and others, free to follow your cords as they move and swirl in the breeze, free to be caught up in the dance of your love, finding myself in surrendering to you.

How can I tell of such love? How can I give to such love?

I am, here am I.

(Catherine Hooper)

Deaths: We pray for the recently deceased: Mary O'Hora, Kiltimagh, Co Mayo; Kathleen O'Connell, Tulleevin Park and Millcroft; Josephine Elliott, Derrygonnelly; Rose Holden, Lisnarick. May they rest in peace.

Launch of Webcam 'Coffee Morning' on Saturday 23rd June from 10.30am – 1pm in St Michael's Parish Centre. Cameras have been installed and appropriate permissions obtained for daily & Sunday liturgies to be viewed worldwide by live stream over the Internet via a link on the Parish website. This will be particularly beneficial for patients in the new South West Acute Hospital where a dedicated channel will soon be made available on room televisions for patients to view Mass and Eucharistic Adoration as well as other liturgies. The service will be further extended to the Nursing Homes and via broadband and set top boxes. Parishioners who have broadband/ internet access may also access all broadcasts on their computers or by a set top box costing £99. This will be explained at the launch. The Knights of St Columbanus have been supporting the development of this project and would invite you to a live demonstration of the WEBCAM at the Coffee Morning. Proceeds to help fund the project.
