REFLECTION

Today marks the beginning of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity and this year's theme for the week is "Jesus said to her "Give me to drink." This week offers us an opportunity for encounter and dialogue with others and a time to ask God for the gift of unity. Today is also the World Day of Migrants and Refugees. Speaking last year Pope Francis spoke about the need to care for our fellow human beings. Today's readings show Jesus invite the disciples to "come and see" where he lived. He welcomed them into his home and they stayed with him for the rest of the day. The example of Jesus encourages us to be welcoming, to extend a warm invitation to all and to spend time with others in conversation and friendship

Deaths: We pray for the recently deceased: Patricia Mulhern, Riverside; Nathan Convey Alexander; Ernie Corrigan, Walsall, England formerly Enniskillen; Eamon Maguire, Kilmacormick Close; Bridie O'Doherty, (née Petty) Derry, late of Enniskillen.
May they rest in peace.

St Joseph's College President's Award Students' Tea/Coffee

Mornings: The students are sitting exams on Friday 16th January and they have asked that parishioners would remember them in their prayers. The Coffee Morning will resume again on Friday 23rd January 2015 after the 10.00 am Mass.

The annual Christian Unity Week Service will take place on Thursday January 22nd at 7.30pm in St. Michael's parish church, Enniskillen. The theme for this year's service comes from the churches of Brazil: "It was necessary to walk through Samaria" (cf. John 4:4). The reflection will be given by Fr. Tim Bartlett, priest of the diocese of Down and Connor, Episcopal Vicar for Education and Director of Public and Social Affairs.

A Prayer For The Missing

O, Blessed Mother and St Joseph,
you searched when your Son Jesus
disappeared when he was twelve.

You would not give up
until he was found.

You know the pain of having someone missing,
and the joy of finding them,
as you found your son.

Help those who are searching now,
to find the answers to their questions,
and an end to their searching.

Inspire people to be vigilant,
so that their eyes and ears
may see and hear news that will bring hope.

Comfort those who feel lonely and sad
because the one they love has vanished.

Be with them in the storm
and guide them in their efforts.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen
