Reflection

"Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away." (Mark: 13)
These words in the Gospel passage of this weekend will hopefully be a source of great comfort to us. We live in a very fast-paced world where things change very rapidly. We can be left feeling dizzy, confused or, sometimes, just left behind.

But, we do have one constant in our lives and that is the Word who is Christ. Jesus does not change, His word is eternal and we have been called to celebrate that Word in our lives. Let us ask the world to keep us faithful to him so that we may know his peace and never feel too left behind.

Deaths: We remember in prayer the recently deceased; Debbie Gordon, Drumcor Hill; John Francis Stewart, Newry and Abbey Street; James Green, Kinawley. May they rest in peace.
