Reflection

A moment of prayerful silence: - Like the disciples, we too come together around Jesus who prays alone. We gather around Him and in Him all our energies, every thought, every commitment and preoccupation, our hopes and pains...

- Today it is we who are those disciples who see the Master praying and allow themselves to be involved in his prayer, which, evidently, was quite special.
- Today his words are addressed to us, the invitation to trust in the love of the Father is addressed to us, We are so taken up with material things, so much seeking "all and immediately", so spellbound by a thousand things, that then (and only "then", after some event that shakes us) we discover that they are all really superfluous...
- Today it is up to us to give voice to the prayer of the Master: Father, hallowed be your name...

Deaths: We pray for the recently deceased: Pauline Fitzpatrick (formerly McQuaid) Derrin Road and Darlington, England; Tom Fee, Tullynacross, Donaghmoyne, Co. Monaghan (Father of Fr. Ian Fee CC) May they rest in Peace.
