Season of Creation 2024 - The Season of Creation is celebrated in faith communities around the world from 1st September until the Feast of St Francis of Assisi, on 4th October. St Francis and the Franciscans introduced a whole new way of thinking into the spiritual life - a way that saw everything connected. Pope Francis wants us to think and act in response to Climate change. During the Season of Creation we are reminded how everything and everyone is connected and interconnected an the consequences of our actions on others less fortunate.

St Michael's Parish Young At Heart (YAH) Golden Age Club. Wish to thank those who have helped in any way to make this group a success. Special thanks to those who make the tea and to those who have provided entertainment - Róisín O'Connell for Poetry, Michael Durkan for Table Quiz, Paddy Hanley for Bingo and prizes. All sessions are most enjoyable. Next meeting on Sunday 1st September. All those living in the Parish over 50 are most welcome.
