Reflection: Jealousy is like poison. It destroys happiness in our hearts and causes strife amongst people and nations. A jealous look kills and destroys like frost in the winter. We need not be surprised to find jealousy even in Church communities. Jealousy is an ugly enemy that the Israelites in the desert and even the apostles themselves had to fight. What are we to do with a jealous eye that causes us to sin? Christ gives a radical answer! God does not want us to be stingy or jealous. He wants us to be generous like him. He is not a stingy God with a jealous eye. He is a God with a big wide heart, filled with boundless generosity.

Deaths: We pray for the recently deceased: Vincent O'Goan, Sunnyside Court, Chanterhill; Brian J. Carson, South Africa; Maureen Muldoon, Windmill Heights and Graan Abbey Nursing Home, Gabriel Brannigan, Tattykeeran, Tempo; Jean Jackson, Monea.

Weekly Offering: 20.09.15 £3189.44

ST VINCENT DE PAUL AID TO THE NEPALESE EARTHQUAKE AND THE EUROPEAN MIGRANT CRISES

The Blessed Virgin Conference in Enniskillen will always try to respond to the needs in our local Fermanagh community, but thanks to your generosity over the years we have also been able to respond to the SVP international appeals. International help is given by sending help directly to SVP Conferences in the affected areas. For example, conferences in Lyon, France are liaising directly with SVP conferences in Syria and Iraq to get aid to people migrating from there. In Calais, SVP is providing food and commodities to people hoping to enter England. Here in Northern region SVP is working in partnership with a North Antrim Refugee Crisis charity to get much needed help to refugees being held on the island of Kos in Greece. In response to appeals from St Vincent de Paul's national and international offices, we in Enniskillen have donated £15,000 for the relief of people suffering as a result of the earthquake in Nepal and the appalling migrant situation in Europe. We thank you most sincerely for your continued support through the church collection, individual donations and using the Vincent's Shop. Your generosity is not only helping local people, it is also directly helping some of those in need across the globe. So, while we are offering you our heartfelt thanks for your help we are asking that you please keep giving – your donations are getting to people who are in dire need. Thank you and God bless. Tom Martin, President, Blessed Virgin Conference, Enniskillen.
