Reflection:

The image of Christian life we are given in the Gospel this weekend is one that calls us to be aware of our neighbour, to see those around us and to respond to their needs with love and kindness. We are called to be God's presence, to be angels to one another. The 29th of September is traditionally observed as the feast of St. Michael, the Archangel. Although the feast goes unobserved this year, because it falls on a Sunday, let us ask God to help us be His angels to others as we ask the prayerful protection of His archangel and pray:

*Holy Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle;
be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray: and do thou,
O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God,
thrust down into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls.
Amen.*

Deaths We pray for the recently deceased: David Dorrian, Drumbeg; Denis

Bannon, Lisreagh, Lisbellaw; Hugh Wylie, 41 Meadow Farm; Edward (Ted)

Keenan, 93 Derrin Road; Francie Cleary, Mill Street and Carlow.

May they rest in peace.

Anniversary Masses for 2014

St Michael's Anniversary Mass Book for 2014 will be open for booking in the Sacristy from this Monday, ? after 10.00am Mass.

- 1 The 6.00pm Vigil Mass on Saturday is reserved for Month's Mind Masses. The 9.30am Mass on Sunday mornings will also be used to commemorate Month's Mind Masses if and when necessary, or requested.
- 2 The 7.30pm Mass on Friday will be reserved, along with one other intention if necessary, for First Anniversary Masses.
- 3 Up to two anniversary intentions may be booked for the 10.00am Mass on Saturday. In the event of a funeral, the Intentions booked will still be remembered.
- 4 Out of consideration for all who may wish to book family anniversaries, parishioners are requested to book only one Mass for all deceased members of their family.
- 5 10.00 am Morning Mass Intentions: Normally, at the 10.00am Mass we specially remember those whose names appear in the Parish Messenger. The 10.00am weekday Mass is the main daily community celebration. That being the case, it is considered most suitable and pastorally more prudent that funerals normally take place at this time, hence, funerals will be celebrated at the 10.00am Mass. Since any death is a loss to the whole parish it is important that the 10.00am weekday celebration should be the normal setting to ensure funerals be celebrated in the presence of the greatest possible representation from the parish community. In all instances, when there is a funeral during the 10.00am Mass, we will remember and mention those whose names appear in the Parish Messenger for the 10.00am Mass and include the name of the deceased whose funeral it is.

Notices for

Display on Church Notice Boards – We welcome notices for the Church Notice Boards from our Parish Groups/Ministries In order to keep all the notices 'current' and in advance of particular events we would be grateful if all group/individuals wishing to display a notice on any of the Boards would leave Notices in the Parish Office (10.30am-2.30pm Mon – Fri) for the attention of the Parish Priest. When notices have been approved for display they will be placed on the boards in the Porch or the easels at the rear of the Church. Posters and notices cannot be displayed on pillars, doors or other Church furniture.
