Reflection (from Richard Rohr) The God whom Jesus incarnates and embodies is not a distant God that must be placated. Jesus' God is not sitting on some throne demanding worship and throwing down thunderbolts like Zeus. Jesus never said, "Worship me"; he said, "Follow me." He asks us to imitate him in his own journey of full incarnation. To do so, he gives us the two great commandments: 1) Love God with your whole heart, soul, mind, and strength and 2) Love your neighbour as yourself (Mark 12:28-31, Luke 10:25-28). In the parable of the Good Samaritan, Jesus shows us that our "neighbour" even includes our "enemy" (Luke 10:29-37). So how do we love God? ...The only way I know how to teach anyone to love God, and how I myself can love God, is to love what God loves, which is everything and everyone, including you and including me! "We love because God first loved us" (1 John 4:19). "If we love one another, God remains in us, and [God's] love is brought to perfection in us" (1 John 4:12).

Deaths: We pray for the recently deceased: Barbara Brazil, Trasna Park; Simon Mallon Hillview Park; Florrie Wells (nee Rogers) Kent, formerly Head Street Enniskillen; Sean McKeown, Dublin; Kevin McElroy, Castlebalfour, Lisnaskea. May they rest in peace.

'Helping Hands' It is very difficult to find the words to express my deep gratitude to the people of the parish for your response to my fund raising appeal last weekend, for the Flame of Hope in India. I am totally overwhelmed by your generosity and your kind wishes. Not only have we raised sufficient funds to employ a music therapy teacher but we will also be able to provide other much needed resources. Many, many thanks to all who contributed and wished me well. Please keep me in the prayers! – Mary McDaid.
