Reflection

If you were not risen, Lord Christ, to whom would we go to discover a radiance of the face of God?

*If you were not risen, we would not be together seeking your communion.
We would not find in your presence forgiveness, wellspring of a new beginning.*

If you were not risen, where would we draw the energy for following you right to the end of our existence, for choosing you again and anew?

Brother Roger of Taizé

Deaths We pray for the recently deceased: Teresa Roche, Breandrum Park;
Brendan Breen, London and Drumcor Hill; Mairead Keenan, Macken; Vincent

The Commissioning of the Parish Pastoral Council last weekend marks a further step towards a way of being parish which was set out by Pope Benedict XVI when he said of the laity, 'They must no longer be viewed as (merely) 'co-workers' of the clergy but truly recognised as 'co-responsible' for the Church's being and action.' (Address given at The Opening of the Pastoral Convention of the Diocese of Rome on the Theme: 'Church Membership and Pastoral Co-Responsibility', Basilica of Saint John Lateran, 26 May 2009). We remember that parish ministry here has for many years now included more than twenty parish groups as well as the new groups that emerged more recently. Part of the remit of the Parish Pastoral Council will be to help support and to provide linkage between the various ministry groups. At their best, Parish Pastoral Councils foster and give expression to a parish sense of community and 'communio' (a Latin word that expresses togetherness and connectedness). As Pope Benedict XVI said at Castel Gandolfo last August, 'Feel the commitment to work for the Church's mission to be your own, through prayer, through study, through active participation in ecclesial life, through an attentive and positive gaze at the world, in the continual search for the signs of the times.' St Patrick came to share the Good News to the people of Ireland. We are doing what he did in a way.
