Bishop Duffy, A Pastoral Message for Easter can be found on the Clogher Diocese

Website (<https://www.clogherdiocese.ie/2020/04/pastoral-message-for-easter-2020-from-bishop-larry-duffy>). Here is an extract:

This Easter we are being challenged in many ways. But among the challenges there is one that as people of faith, people of hope and people of love, we cannot ignore. It is the challenge to find Christ in all that we do, in all the circumstances of life's journey. Yes, Christ, Crucified and Risen, is with us.

Like the women on that first Easter morning, may we all in our time be 'filled with awe and great joy' (Mt 28:8) as we seek to bring the love and mercy of Christ to others, especially to those who most need it. Let us not be afraid to do so.

Christ my hope, has risen: he goes before you into Galilee that Christ is truly risen from the dead we know.
 Victorious king, thy mercy show. (Sequence of Easter Sunday)

My prayer this Easter is that you will hold on to that hope as we celebrate the great deeds of God.

Mary, Mother of God, Mother of the Church, pray for us.
 Christ my hope, has risen: he goes before you into Galilee
 That Christ is truly risen from the dead we know.
 Victorious king, thy mercy show.

Mary, Mother of God, Mother of the Church, pray for us.

+Larry Duffy (Bishop of Clogher)
